Join Powell, American composerplants., gave a fourth recital last evening in Acolian Hall. The programme contained a sonata by Mr. Powell entitled "Teutonica." The performance of the sonata was prefaced by some explanatory remarks by the composer as bearing on his purpose in writing the sonata and the ideas therein embodied.

Mr. Powell recently played the composition here at a private concert of the Filends of Music. Its first performance took place at a concert given in 1914 in London. The programme notes at that time were written by Richard Brockwell, the eminent music critic, and of these notes were again used at last eve-

And Tachaikowsky Symphony.

Percy Grainger, the Australian pianist, was the soloist with the Symphony Society. Walter Damrosch leader, at its concert yesterday in Acolian Hall. He was heard in Grieg's pianoforte concerto with orchestra. The works performed by the orchestra were Beethoven's "Leonore" overture, No. 3, and Tachaikowsky's second symphony in C minor.

Mr. Grainger played the Grieg concerto with apparent devotion, with ardor and a brilliant technic. His conception of the work is one that is always guided the workly dance of the Bach-in the stylistic details of its performance. His playing of the concerto yesterday was warmly applicated.

The second number in the list, Tschalkowsky's second or "Little Russian" symphony, so called because of the Russian melodies in its score, is not so frequently heard as are his sixth, fifth and fourth works in the same form. In this,

February Furniture Sale

(A National Institution)

Presenting more than a million dollars of Wanamaker-standard home-furniture, our entire regular stock and large special purchases from our regular manufacturers, to be sold at an average of

29 Per Cent. Less in Price

The furniture will be on view and tagged with the new low February prices on the First Day of Courtesy, today, when advance selections may be made, the transactions and deliveries to date from the opening of the Sale, February 1st.

The national character of this February Sale, drawing as it does its clients from all parts of the United States, is explained by these facts-

1. Wanamaker's is recognized as a first-grade specialized Furniture Store, in which unworthy imitations or "just-made-to-sell-at-aprice" furniture are never found, and whose designs are classical and therefore always in good taste.

2. That it is the only store of this character in New York City holding a February Sale in which the entire stock is offered at reduced prices.

3. That the February Sale stock is so varied and so large—more than a million dollars' worth—that all demands upon it can be sat-

The appeal of the February Furniture is universal. It goes straight to every one's home, which is the heart of the family.
